

PHI BETA KAPPA
ALPHA ASSOCIATION OF COLORADO
2022 GRADUATE STUDY SCHOLARSHIPS

This year Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Association of Colorado, will award one $3,000 scholarship and one $2,000 scholarship for Colorado ΦBK initiates or members to begin or continue graduate school. The purpose of the scholarships is to further the pursuit of knowledge and academic excellence.

Who May Apply: Any ΦBK member or initiate who meets at least ONE of the following criteria:

- has received, or will be receiving, an undergraduate degree from a Colorado university or college
- has been accepted for, or is currently enrolled in, a graduate program at a Colorado university or college
- is residing in Colorado at the time of application
- is a current member of the Alpha Association of Colorado

How to Apply: Fill out the scholarship application form. In addition to the application, please provide, or arrange to have sent, to the Scholarship Committee the following materials:

- A personal essay of 750-1000 words describing how your undergraduate education and experiences challenged you, changed you, added value to your life, shaped your goals and passions, and provided you with tools for your future success. Include several specific examples.
- A list of distinctions, awards, and honors you have received during your undergraduate or graduate studies.
- Two letters of recommendation from individuals familiar with your academic studies or recent work experience. Each letter must be on the official letterhead of the recommender's institution and must have an original signature or be emailed from a verifiable university faculty or business email address.
- Written verification of graduate enrollment for the fall 2022 term from an accredited college or university in the United States. Graduate school attendance the year the award is given is required for eligibility, and the award may not be deferred.

Payment of Scholarship: Each award check will be sent to the college or university where the recipient is enrolled for his or her credit.

Taxation of the Award. Scholarships are tax free to the recipient only if he or she is a candidate for a degree and the funds are for tuition and fees required for enrollment or attendance at an accredited college or university in the United States. The scholarship will also be tax free if it covers fees, books, supplies, and equipment for courses at such an educational institution. The portion of any scholarship that covers associated expenses, such as room and board, travel, research, clerical help, and equipment, is not tax free. Recipients of taxable scholarships should report the taxable amount on their income tax returns, and they may have to pay estimated federal and state income taxes throughout the year.

Deadline for Applications: All applications and supporting materials must be received at the addresses given below by June 30, 2022. The awards will be announced no later than August 15, 2022.
